

Front-End task

Objective:

To create static coffee shop website.

Languages used:

1. Html
2. CSS

Code description:

I created 2 files:

1. Website.html: this page has all html require in this task. I managed this file by use section tag to divide my page to 5 sections to be like this:

- First section related to the contents below:

What do you want to learn?

Login

Join For Free

- Second section related to the contents below:

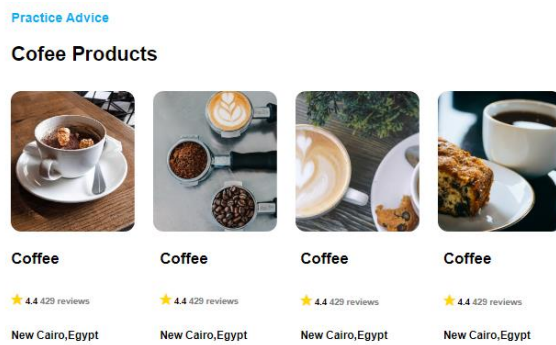

- Third section related to the contents below:

Make Your Own Coffee

- Fourth section related to the contents below:

- Fifth section related to the contents below:

JOIN US

2. Style.css: this file contains all CSS required to create this task. Used the classes and ids from html to make the style required like: margin, padding, width, height....

How to run:

You need to open website.html to see the output.